Recognizing students who possess the core skills employers desire, fueling the 21st century workforce
What is CentreREADY?

CentreREADY is a workforce preparedness initiative of the Chamber of Business & Industry of Centre County, and the county’s public school districts and career/technical training institutions. This voluntary collaborative worker certification program is designed to better match local employers with a quality workforce - future employees that have achieved desired levels of proficiency in the skills employers want and businesses need to be successful. CentreREADY complements the 21st century workforce experiences in school district curriculum offerings.

Why CentreREADY?

One of the biggest challenges currently facing employers across industry sectors is finding employees with the appropriate skill sets. These include core skills, often referred to as “soft” skills. Six such attributes have been specifically identified by Centre County employers as being essential for their employees to possess. The initiative seeks to connect local employers with individuals that are gaining proficiency in these areas, fostering access to a quality workforce.

How does one become CentreREADY?

Your school counselor or academic advisor is able to sign you up for CentreREADY. Doing so indicates your interest in achieving the CentreREADY designation. Participating school districts will monitor and measure proficiency in the six core attributes. CentreREADY certification is available to students entering the workforce upon graduation, as well as to those continuing their education. Your school counselor or academic advisor is available to discuss CentreREADY measurement in more detail.

What does it mean to be CentreREADY?

The designation is the local business community’s seal of approval. When Centre County employers see the CentreREADY designation on job applications or resumes, they will know that the applicant possesses an understanding of and proficiency in the core attributes that businesses find essential in employees.

Attributes of a CentreREADY Worker

Centre County employers have identified the following skills as essential for fueling a 21st century workforce, and for their employees to possess:

- Work Ethic
  Ability to be punctual and productive, and to effectively manage time; taking pride in work product and a job well done

- Tactfulness/Manners
  Ability to treat people with respect, courtesy and consideration, especially in difficult situations; exhibiting emotional maturity

- Team Work
  Ability to build relationships with colleagues and customers with diverse viewpoints, apply individual skills toward a common goal, and balance individual needs with the organizational need to perform as a unit

- Communication
  Written/verbal/interpersonal
  Ability to articulate thoughts or ideas clearly, succinctly, effectively and appropriately

- Critical Thinking/Problem Solving
  Ability to exercise sound reasoning when analyzing issues, making decisions and overcoming problems as they arise

- Understanding Supervision/World of Work
  Respect for and understanding of the organizational mission; the ‘chain of command’ within the workplace; accepting final decisions made by supervisors
